Brad Hessel, Managing Member of Intelledgement, LLC (the Applicant), is the sole person responsible for the regular review of each client account. While the accounts are reviewed on at least a weekly basis, formal reviews happen every quarter. The performance of each portfolio is measured on a quarterly basis against the expectations of the clients and against standard market indices including, but not limited to: the Dow Jones Industrial Average, the Standard & Poors 500, the Nasdaq Composite and the Russell 2000. Factors that may trigger a change in the portfolio include, but are not limited to: changes in the fundamentals of the company, personal contact with management, reports from brokerage firms and key industry analysts, corporate press releases, general market, economic and world conditions, and the particular needs of the client at a given point in time.

B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Applicant's clients receive a confirmation following execution of each transaction in their account and regular monthly statements from the brokerage firm acting as custodian for their assets. The Applicant provides a more detailed statement of the account on a quarterly basis. Clients have access to all information and transactions in their brokerage account via the internet. In addition, the Applicant is available to confer with clients whenever it is reasonably requested.
